LABUAN. In the absence of more exciting topics, we give prominence to the speech of His Excellency Governor Pope Hennessey, addressed to the Legislative Council of Labuan at the close of the Session, 17th October, 1868. Apart from the intrinsic merits of the address, it possesses an interest from the rumour that Sir Richard MacDonnell is to be succeeded in the Government of Hongkong by Mr Hennessey. Supposing this rumour to have some foundation, we venture to quote parallel passages from the speeches delivered by Mr Hennessey on the 5th, and by Sir Richard on the 17th Oct. The former says, "A Colony, like an individual, never can be really prosperous, until it is financially independent. The latter varies this form of expression, der the new lease, bu large firm or business, should never be for it, and whateve will simply go to without an easily available surplus." There is no disputing the truth of these In connection with propositions. Dick Swiveller would give our finances we can the most unfeigned assent to Mr Hennesfaction the steady g sey; but as to Sir Richard, he would say the last ten years that he declined to support the Marchio-Gütta Percha, ediblo ness by an "available surplus" got from

The new excise on Gambier, which is here used only as a trifling luxury by the Malays, and the old excise on Ganja-a popular luxury still more, limited in conaumption-cannot be expected to produce much revenue. But united to the small excise charge on the sale of salt—an excise familiar to the various Eastern races in the Colony, and to the Tobacco tax, the amalgamated farm has been sold for $3960 By allowing the opium farmers to pay the mouthly rental on the 25th of each month, instead of paying it in advance on the 1st of the mouth into the Treasury chest, where it lay idle for thirty days, an hy modifying some minor regulations, we have been able to sell this farm at a higher rate than it ever reached here before, viz. $10.800 for the year.

. The Pawnbroking farm and the Grey market can hardly be regarded as source of revenue, for, though they will realize $660 a year, it is more as a protection to the poor against exactions that they are established than as fiscal regulations.

· In the whole, the proceeds of the license farmed out for the year 1869 will be nearly one hundred per cent. in excess of those estimated in 1867 for the current year.

The land revenue is also rapidly rising in the same proportion. Some of wealthiest Chinese traders are purchasing estates in the alluvial plain now cleared to wards the centre of the Island." No one can tell what proportion of the Mexican people are with Juarez, but it is certain that a very President has never been able to provide security for property even in the large capitals, and law has been nothing but an bandits and marauders have had everything their own way. Juarez has, it appears, friends in London to whom he writes glowing accounts of the happiness and peace this very time the revolutionary party seem likely to take possession of Vera Cruz. The President marches to suppress one insurrection, and another instantly breaks out in the place which he vacates. Anarchy is always following his footsteps. The work is hard, and Juarez is now on the wrong side of sixty-five, and not so well fitted for a life of incessant warfare as he once was. He but recently sent out an expedition to Alvavada to quell a revolt, and it returned unsuccessful. Then the storm threatened to burst at Vera Cruz. It may be that the price paid for Alaska would have gone a long way towards adding a far more splendid possession to the United States. for 7,200,000 dollars in gold is a large sum of money, and Juarez is very poor, and it is just possible the people are really getting tired of licensed spolistion and bloodshed Mr Seward's time, too, is in all probability been steadily working up to. If Genera the story goes, will be Secretary of State. If the Democrats win the day they are little likely to keep their old antagonist in power. There is every reason, therefore. why Mr Seward should hasten with the work which still lies unfinished before him All this may serve to explain the news which the last mails brought us from America, General Rosecranz, a very shrewd and trustworthy officer, has been sent to Mexico as the new Minister from the United States. We do not suppose that Mr Seward has told any one outside the Cabinet the exact nature of the instructions which General Rosecranz carries with him in his pocket. But it would not de for him to keep his strategy too close a secret, for he wants to gain time to play it out, and this can only be done by permitting the public to get scent of it. Stray hints have therefore been dropped about the papers signifying that General Rosecranz is gone to invite Mexico to join the great Republic. The only question in our. opinion is, How long will he have to wait before his errand is accomplished? Juarez already brought low enough to accept terms? One American correspondent tells us-"It is said that in return for a protectorate and a loan of money Juarez will consent to a rectification of the Southern frontier of the United States.' This is a comfortable way of putting the matter, but the Mexicans will know what is meant. And what better could they do for themselves than to meet the new envoy half way? They would exchange unceasing turbulence for security and order, a weak and ignoble Government for a powerful and respected one, subserviency to adventurers for an honourable connection with a up to this unhappy country. Ir was stat d in a case which has just been tried in Paris that the trade of a jeweller requires "great tact and much discretion on certain delicate points." The suit itself supplies an illustration of one of these "delicate points." The Marquis de Galif fet, a well known member of the French Jockey Club, had two accounts with his goldsmith, Mr Harry Emmanuel. In one was entered the jewellery supplied to ha wife, and in the other the jewellery which, in the significant words of Galignani, "was not supplied to his wife," but presumably to some other persons. The Marquis paid his wife's bill, but se ms to have felt some reluctance to commit himself in regard to the other account. The court, however decided against him, and he had to pay for all the goods delivered on his behalf, whether at home or elsewhere.

BISHOP GRANULAR

EFFERVESCENT CITRATE MAGNESIA.

Introduced and prepared by ALFRED BISHOP, Manufacturing Chemist, 17 & 18, SPECK'S FIELDS, MILE END, NEW TOWN

/11HIS perfectly white and delicately clean granulated preparation possesses remarkable effervescen qualities, which far surpasses the ordinary Seidlitz Powder in its cooling, refreshing and mild aperiont. properties, as well as in its flavour as a saline draught. It is particularly well adapted for women and young | ving of the Coins of Japan, and a chart children, on account of its most agreeable flavour and shewing the Ocean ateam route of the N.B .- The genuine has the name BISHOP upon the Bottle, also the Name and Trade Mark upon the Label, and is sold in convenient sizes, and secured in so perfect a manner that it may be shipped with safety to any part of the world. Manufacturer also of Granulated and Effervescent Carbonate of Iron, Citrate of Iron, Citrate of Quinine, Citrate of Quinine and Iron, Carbonate of Lithia in and all other Granulated Preparations. IN CHANCERY .- CAUTION. BISHOP'S GRANULAR EPPERVESCENT CITRATE OF MAGNESIA ... Mr. Bishop, having discovered that the Label which he has are all prepared in Pure Malt Vinegar, boiled in used for the last five years was being imitated, recently applied to the Count of Chancery for an INJUNCTION to restrain such imitation. The Int junction was immediately granted, and the Defendanwas ordered to pay all Mr. Bishop's Casts and destroy the Labels complained of.
